AMUSEMENTS. Grand Exhibition and Concert.

THE MEMBERS of GZORGE WASHINGTON SECTION (No. 2) CADETS OF TEMPERANCE take great pleasure in announcing to their friends and the public generally, that they will give a grand EXHIBITION AND CONCERT on Wednesday evening, May 7, at Temperance Hall, on E street, between 9th and 10th. The exercises will consist of Recitations, Dialogues, and Music by one of the best bands in the District. They have also obtained the consent of Mr. J. LATHAM to address the meeting at its opening.

The Section have spared no pains or expense in order to make this one of the most entertaining exhibitions which has ever been held in this city; and, hoping that they will have a large assembly, they have put the tickets down to the unusually low price of 12½ cents.

Tickets may be obtained of any of the members of the Section, or at the door on the evening of the exhibition. The exercises will commence at 8 o'clock precisely. THE MEMBERS of George Washington Section (No. 2

THE LADIES holding this Fair for the benefit of Saint Mary's Catholic Church, on 5th street, will continue it for three days longer. On MONDAY, TUESDAY, and WEDNESDAY they will dispose of their great variety of articles, at reduced prices. Those who have so kindly and liberally patronized the Fair during the past week are requested to repeat their visits; and those who have not attended will now have an opportunity to contribute to this most commendable charity. Open from 1 to 10 p. m. may 5—3t [City papers.]

Mr. Robert Sears—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant, EDWARD HITCHCOCK.

words, and the Explanation of this standard and favorite Latin

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without a figure is fully classical and Civernain; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, see ond, &c., degrees, and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The hymningical Index, also from Freund's barkeen, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transforming these unter and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these candequots, it was found that the value and importance of the solditional words found in Leverett, as for

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

OWING to the lat- revolutions and counter-revolutions among the na-dons of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet." the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become investes with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

The LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

BLACKWOOD'S EDISBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Kadical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edisburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical novement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by the son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, imme-of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their strival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.
